MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

FROM: [redacted] Director
Center for the Study of Intelligence

SUBJECT: Reprint [redacted]

[redacted] told me that Ballantyne is planning to publish his book [redacted] in January, 1982. Walter Pforzheimer who has been consulted by Ballantyne on selections for their new series of reprints on intelligence matters strongly recommended the [redacted] book and provided them with a copy. At present, the executive editor in charge, Owen Locke, does not plan to print either the illustrations or all of the appendices. Locke plans a trade paperback run of 25,000 - 35,000 copies at $10.95 per copy. He wants Tom to rewrite and combine the two prefaces for which he is prepared to pay him an honorarium. This revised preface will obviously have to go through the Publications Review Board and the honorarium matter will have to be decided upon by the Office of General Counsel at the appropriate time.
